

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 93-63

In re:

RICHARD B. MARX

Upon consideration of the petition for reinstatement filed by Richard B. Marx pursuant to Rule IX of the Rules Governing Attorney Discipline for the Southern District of Florida, the Court finds the petition was prematurely filed.

The Florida Bar suspended petitioner from the practice of law for a period of three years on June 29, 1989. Rule IX(A) provides that an attorney who is disbarred or suspended for more than three months may not resume the practice of law before this Court until reinstated by Court order. Rule IX(B) provides that attorneys may not apply for reinstatement until the expiration of at least five years from the effective date of disbarment. As five years have not elapsed since Mr. Marx was disbarred from this Court, it is ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that Mr. Marx's petition for reinstatement is hereby DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE TO LATER RENEWAL upon the expiration of the five-year period.

DONE AND ORDERED this 26 day of July,
1993.
